New Delhi, the 20th December, 1975

G.S.R. 2865.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to the Indian Railway Personnel Service, namely—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Indian Railway Personnel Service (Recruitment) Rules, 1975.

(2) They shall come into force on 1-1-1976.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Commission" means the Union Public Service Commission;

(b) "Government" means the Government of India in the Ministry of Railways;

(c) "Grade" means a Grade of the Service;

(d) "Schedule" means a schedule to these rules;

(e) "Scheduled Castes" mean such castes, classes or tribes, or parts of or groups within such castes, classes, or tribes as are included under article 341 of the Constitution, to be Scheduled Castes for the purpose of the Constitution;

(f) "Scheduled Tribes" mean such tribes or tribal communities or groups within such tribes or tribal communities as are included under article 342 of the Constitution, to be Scheduled Tribes for the purpose of the Constitution;

(g) "Service" means the Indian Railway Personnel Service.

3. Constitution of Service.—There shall be constituted a service to be known as the Indian Railway Personnel Service, consisting of—(i) the persons appointed to the Service under rule 6 on the commencement of these rules, and

(ii) persons appointed to the Service under rule 8 after such commencement.

Explanation.—The term "appointed" in these rules shall be construed to include appointments made in an officiating capacity on a regular basis.

4. Grades and Authorised Strength.—The grades and authorised strength of pay of posts in the Services shall be as shown in Schedule I.

5. Review of Authorised strength.—(1) After the commencement of these rules, the authorised permanent strength of the various grades shall be as may from time to time be determined by the Government.

(2) The Government may make such temporary additions to the cadre as it may deem necessary from time to time.

6. Initial Constitution of the Service.—(1) Initial appointment to the Service shall be through the following sources, namely—

(i) Officers, who were recruited to the erstwhile Establishment Department of the Superior Revenue Establishment of the State Railways/Indian Railways through competitive examinations conducted by the Federal Public Service Commission in the years 1945 and 1947, who, at the time of the commencement of these rules, have been permanently assigned to other services/posts and are not working in the Personnel Department on the railways, even if they have been provided leaves in other departments/posts:

Provided that such of these officers, who were recruited to the erstwhile Establishment Department of the Superior Revenue Establishment of the State Railways/Indian Railways, who, at the time of the commencement of these rules, have been permanently assigned to other services/posts and are not working in the Personnel Department on the railways, shall be governed by clause (iv).

(ii) Officers promoted from Class II to Class I posts in the Personnel Department on the railways, even if they have been provided leaves in other departments/posts.

(iii) Officers, who were originally recruited for other departments but were later on, found suitable for being retained for service in the Personnel Department only, even if they have been provided leaves in other departments/posts.

(iv) Officers belonging to all Class I services under the Ministry of Railways (excluding the Indian Railway Medical Service), who have, at the time of commencement of these rules, completed 5 years in junior scale (Class II) service in the grade of Under Secretary in the Ministry of Railways and elect, on the basis of an option, to be appointed to the Service;
Provided that an officer who is eligible to exercise an option under sub-rule (1) or (2) to the contrary, shall not be given another opportunity to exercise an option on any future occasion.

12. In case any of the methods of recruitment referred to above fails, the vacancies shall be filled by transfer (or deputation of suitable officers of the Class I Services under the Ministry of Railways (excluding the Indian Railway Medical Service). The period of deputation shall not ordinarily exceed three years.

9. Probation.—(1) Officers appointed to any of the grades of the Service, either by direct recruitment or by promotion, or by transfer, shall be on probation for a period of two years.

Provided that the Government may by order for reasons to be recorded in writing extend or curtail the period of probation.

(2) On the expiration of the period of probation of officers under sub-rule (1) or on any extension thereof, as the case may be, the Government is of opinion that a candidate is not fit for permanent appointment, he shall, in their appointment, subject to the availability of substantive vacancies in permanent posts.

(3) If, on the expiration of the period of probation referred to in sub-rule (1) or any extension thereof, as the case may be, the Government is of opinion that a candidate is not fit for permanent appointment, if, at any time during such period of probation or extension, the Government is satisfied that he shall not be fit for permanent appointment on the expiration of such period of probation or extension, the Government may discharge or revert him to his substantive post or pass such orders as it may think fit.

(4) During the period of probation, the candidates may be required by the Government to undergo such course of training and instructions as they may extend or curtail.

10. Appointment to the Service.—All appointments to the Service by the Government shall be made by the Government.

11. Liability to service in any part of India or outside.——

(1) Officers appointed to the Service shall be liable to serve anywhere in India or outside.

(2) Officers, if deputed, shall be liable to serve in any other Ministry or Department of the Government of India or Corporations or Industrial Undertakings of the Government.

12. Reservations for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes etc.—Nothing in these rules shall affect, reservations and other concessions required to be provided for the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes and other special categories of persons in accordance with the orders issued by the Central Government from time to time, in this regard.

13. Power to relax.——Where the Government is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient to do so, it may, by order for reasons to be recorded in writing and in consultation with the Commission, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons or posts.
15. Other matters.—In all matters not specially provided for in these rules, officers appointed to the Service shall be governed by such rules or orders as may be issued by the Government from time to time.

SCHEDULE

(See rule 4)

The Indian Railway Personnel Service shall consist of the following grades of posts with the scales of pay shown against them—

SCHEDULE II

(See rule 8(1)(d)(i))

RECRUITMENT BY COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION

1. Holding of examination.—A competitive examination for appointment to the Service shall be held at such times and places as may be prescribed in a notice issued by the Commission for the purpose. Every such notice shall, as far as possible, specify the number of vacancies to be filled on the results of the examination.

2. Conduct of examination.—Every examination shall be conducted by the Commission in the manner prescribed by the Government of India in the Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms from time to time.

3. Combined examination.—If the examination held for combined examination for the purpose of making appointments to more than one service or post, the following provisions shall apply: namely—

(a) Any person may apply to be admitted as a candidate for appointment to all or any of the Services or posts for which he is eligible. If he wishes to be considered for appointment in more than one Service or post he shall state in his application form the names of the Services and posts for which he wishes to be considered, and the order of his preference for them, and in such cases, only one application form shall be necessary and one payment of the fees referred to in paragraph 9 shall be sufficient.

(b) The Government of India in the Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms shall notify the successful candidates to each Service or post on a consideration of all circumstances including any personal preference expressed by the candidates.

4. Application for admission to the examination.—A candidate shall apply for admission to the examination on the date before such date, in such manner and in such form, as the Commission may prescribe.

Provided that in the case of a candidate who is in the permanent or temporary service of the Central Government or any State Government, the application for admission to the examination shall be sent through the head of the department or office to which he is serving.

5. Nationality.—A candidate must be a citizen of India or must belong to such categories of persons as may, from time to time, be notified by the Government of India.

6. Age limit.—A candidate must have attained the age of 21 years and must not have attained the age of 26 years on the first day of August of the year in which the examination is held.

Provided that the upper age limit may be relaxed in respect of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, and such other categories of persons as may, from time to time, be notified in this behalf by the Government of India in the Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms, to the extent and subject to the conditions notified in respect of each category.

7. Attempts at the examination.—No candidate who does not belong to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe or who is not covered by any of the specified exceptions notified by the Government of India in the Department of Personnel and Administrative Reforms, from time to time, shall be permitted to compete more than three times at the examination.

8. Educational Qualifications.—A candidate must hold a degree of a University incorporated by an Act of the Central or State Legislature in India or other educational institution established by an Act of Parliament or declared to be deemed as universities under section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956 (3 of 1956), or a foreign University approved by the Central Government from time to time, or possess a qualification which has been recognized by the Central Government for the purpose of admission to the examination.

Provided that in exceptional cases, the Commission may treat as qualified a candidate who, though not possessing the qualification prescribed in this rule, has passed an examination conducted by an institution, the standard of which in the opinion of the Commission, justifies his admission to the examination.

Provided further that a candidate who is otherwise qualified but who has taken a degree from a foreign
12. Preparation of list of successful candidates.—(1) After every examination, the names of candidates shall be arranged by the Commission in the order of merit as disclosed by the aggregate marks finally awarded to each candidate. Such candidates as are found by the Commission to be qualified on the basis of the examination shall be recommended for appointment in the order of merit up to the number of unreserved vacancies decided to be filled on the results of the examination.

(2) The candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes may, to the extent to the number of vacancies reserved for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes, be admitted to the examination in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3) of Section 23 of the Constitution.

13. Enquiry of character, etc.—The inclusion of a candidate’s name in the list subject to appointment under this sub-section shall be subject to the conditions prescribed in sub-section (2) of Section 23 of the Constitution.

Provided that in the third year, vacancies reserved for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes shall be filled up by the Scheduled Tribes in the Scheduled Castes respectively, if candidates belonging to the respective communities are not available.

4. Physical test.—No candidate who after such physical examination as the Central Government may prescribe, is found to be in good mental or bodily health and free from any mental or physical defect likely to interfere with the discharge of the duties of the Service, shall be appointed to the Service. The fact that a candidate has been physically examined shall not mean or imply that he shall be considered for appointment.

New Delhi, the 30th March, 1979

G.S.R. 528—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules to amend the Indian Railway Personnel Service (Recruitment) Rules, 1975, namely—:

1. (1) These rules may be called the Indian Railway Personnel Service Recruitment (Amendment) Rules, 1979.

(2) They shall come into force on the 1st day of December, 1978.

2. In the Indian Railway Personnel Service Recruitment Rules, 1975—

(i) In sub-rule (1) of Rule 6, for the words and figures "3 years" the words and figures "4 years" shall be substituted.

(ii) In Rule 7, for the words "three years", the words "four years" shall be substituted.

Explanatory Memorandum to the Indian Railways Personnel Service Recruitment (Amendment) Rules, 1979

When the Recruitment Rules for the Indian Railway Personnel Service were notified on 20-12-1975, it was anticipated that the initial constancy of the Service will be finalised within three years from the date of commencement of the Rules. With the effect of time, it has now been found that the initial appointment in the Service through various sources could not be finalised within this period and it has therefore been decided, in consultation with the UPSC, to extend the transition period by one more year, by which time it is hoped that the initial constitution of the Service would be finalised.

The three year transition period mentioned in the existing Rules culminated on 31st December, 1978 and hence the extension of transition period has to be given effect from that date viz. 31-12-1978. The retrospective effect of the Rules shall not prejudicially affect the rights of any person.

P. N. MOHILE, Secy.
C.S.R. 340.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 319 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Indian Railway Personal Service (Retirement) Rules, 1975, namely:

1. (1) These rules may be called the Indian Railway Personal Service Retirement (Amendment) Rules, 1980.

(2) They shall come into force on the 31st December, 1979.

2. In the Indian Railway Personal Service Recruitment Rules, 1975:

(i) In sub-rule (2) of Rule 6, for the words and figures “exceed 4 years” the words “exceed four and half years” shall be substituted.

(ii) In rule 7, for the words “four years” the words “four and half years” shall be substituted.

(Explanatory Memorandum to the Indian Railway Personal Service Recruitment Rules (Amendment Rules, 1979))

When the Recruitment Rules for the Indian Railway Personal Service were notified on 20-12-1975, it was anticipated that the initial constitution of the service will be finalised within three years from the date of commencement of the Rules. With the effect of time, it was found that the initial appointment to the service through various sources could not be finalised within that period and the transition period was therefore extended by one more year i.e., upto 31-12-1979 and it was hoped that the initial constitution of the service would be finalised within that time.

2. It has now been found that the appointment to the service has not been completed for various reasons and has, therefore, been decided in consultation with the Union Public Service Commission, to extend the transition period by six more months i.e., upto 30-6-1980 by which time, it is hoped that the initial constitution of the service would be finalised.

3. The four year transition period mentioned in the existing rules culminated up to 31st December, 1979 and hence the extension of transition period has to be given effect from that date viz. 31-12-1979. The retrospective effect of the rules shall not prejudicially affect the rights of any person.

1. (1) These rules may be called the Indian Railway Personnel Service Recruitment (Second Amendment) Rules, 1980.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. In the Indian Railway Personnel Service Recruitment Rules, 1975—

(a) in rule 2 after clause (g), the following shall be inserted, namely:—

“(i) "Examination" means a combined competitive examination consisting of a preliminary examination and a main examination held by the Commission for recruitment to the Service and such other Service or Services as may be specified by the Government from time to time;"

(b) in the Schedule II—

(a) the following para shall be substituted namely:—

“6. Age limits.—A candidate must have attained the age of 21 years and must not have attained the age of 28 years on the first day of August in the year in which the examination is held.

Provided that the upper age limit may be relaxed in respect of such categories of persons as may be notified in this behalf by the Central Government to the extent and subject to the conditions notified in respect of each category.”

(b) For para 7, the following para shall be substituted, namely:

“7. Attempts at the Examination.—No candidate who does not belong to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes or who is not covered by the specified exceptions notified by the Government from time to time, shall be permitted to compete more than three times at the examination.

Provided that there shall be no restrictions on the number of attempts for candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes who are otherwise eligible.

Explanation.—An attempt at a preliminary examination shall be deemed to be an attempt at the examination within the meaning of this rule;”

(c) for para 8, the following para shall be substituted, namely:

“8. Educational Qualifications.—A candidate must hold a degree of a University incorporated by an Act of the Central or State Legislature in India or other educational institutions established by an Act of Parliament or declared to be deemed as Universities under section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956 (3 of 1956) or a foreign University approved by the Central Government from time to time, or possesses a qualification which has been recognised by the Central Government for the purpose of admission to the examination;

Provided that—

(a) a candidate, who has appeared at an examination the passing of which would render him educationally qualified for the Commission’s examination but has not been informed of the result as also the candidate who intends to appear at such a qualifying examination shall be eligible for admission to the preliminary examination till, by a date to be notified by the Commission, the candidate produces proof of having passed in the qualifying examination, for being eligible to take the main examination during that year;

(b) in exceptional cases, the Commission may treat as qualified a candidate, who, though not possessing the qualification prescribed in this rule, has passed an examination conducted by an institution, the standard of which in the opinion of the Commission, justified his admission to the examination;

(c) A candidate who is otherwise qualified but who has taken a degree from a foreign University which is not approved by the Government may also be admitted to the examination at the discretion of the Commission.”

(d) For para 11, the following para shall be substituted, namely:

“11. Penalty for misconduct.—A candidate who is or has been declared by the Commission to be guilty of:—

(i) obtaining support for his candidature by any means or

(ii) impersonating, or

(iii) procuring impersonation by any person, or
