MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS
(Railway Board)

NOTIFICATION

New Delhi, the 9th November 1969

G.S.R. 1969.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to the Indian Railway Service of Mechanical Engineers, namely:—

PART I—General

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These Rules may be called the Indian Railway Service of Mechanical Engineers Recruitment Rules, 1969.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) "Commission" means the Union Public Service Commission;

(b) "examination" means the combined competitive examination held by the Commission for recruitment to the Engineering Services, or the Special Class Railway Apprentices Examination held by the Commission;

(c) "Government" means the Central Government;

(d) "Scheduled Castes" and "Scheduled Tribes" shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in clauses (24) and (25) of article 366 of the Constitution;

(e) "Service" means the Indian Railway Service of Mechanical Engineers.

2. Constitution of Service, Classification, grade and scales of pay.—(1) The Service shall consist of—

(i) members recruited to the Service before the commencement of these rules; and

(ii) person recruited to the Service after such commencement in accordance with the provisions of these rules.

(2) The classification of, and the grades and scales of pay in the Service shall be as follows, namely:

(II) Senior Scale: Rs. 700.—(4th year and under)—40–1100–550–1250.

(III) Junior Administrative Grade: Rs. 1300–1900.

(IV) Senior Administrative Grade: Rs. 2500–3500.

(3) Other conditions of service shall be as specified in Appendix I to these rules.

4. Methods of recruitment.—Subject to the provisions of rule 5, recruitment to the Service shall be by the following methods, namely:—

(a) by competitive examination held by the Commission in accordance with the provisions of Part II of these rules;

(b) by appointment of candidates selected as Special Class Apprentices on the results of a competitive examination held by the Commission in accordance with the provisions of Part II of these rules;

(c) by appointment of Assistant Mechanical Engineers recruited through the Commission, initially as temporary officers, to such extent as may be decided in consultation with the Commission from time to time;

(d) by promotion in accordance with the provisions of Part III of these rules;

(e) by occasional admission of other qualified persons appointed by the President in consultation with the Commission;
Provided that 30 per cent of the number of permanent vacancies in the Service to be filled by the methods referred to in clauses (a) and (c) shall be reserved for Graduate Engineers who were commissioned in the Armed Forces prior to the date of operation of the proclamation of Emergency issued on the 26th October, 1962.

Note.-Candidates selected as Special Class Apprentices shall be required to undergo practical and theoretical training. Particulars regarding the period and course of training and the terms and conditions of apprenticeship are given in Appendix II to these rules.

5. Government to determine method or methods of recruitment for filling vacancies.-(1) Government shall determine the method or methods of recruitment to be employed for the purpose of filling particular vacancies, or such vacancies as may require to be filled during any particular period, and the number of candidates to be recruited by each method:

Provided that all recruitments to the Service by the method referred to in clause (a) of rule 4 shall be to the Junior Scale only.

(2) The percentage of vacancies to be filled by the various methods shall be as follows:

Methods referred to in clauses (a) to (c) of rule 4 to be 50 per cent.

Methods referred to in clause (d) of rule 4 to be 25 per cent.

Provided that the Government may, with the previous approval of the Commission, recruit candidates to the Service by the method referred to in clause (e) of rule 4, and when recruitment is made under this clause the number of persons recruited shall count against the percentage of vacancies to be filled by the methods referred to in clauses (a) to (d) of the said rule.

6. Special representation.-Appointments to the Service otherwise than by promotion shall be made subject to orders regarding special representation in the Service for candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and to Scheduled Tribes, and such other categories of persons as may from time to time be notified in this behalf by Government.

7. Nationality.-A candidate must be a citizen of India or he must belong to such categories of persons as may from time to time be notified by the Government.

PART II—Recruitment by Competitive Examinations

8. Holding of examinations.—A competitive examination for appointment to the Service shall be held at such time and place as may be prescribed in the respective Notice issued by the Commission in this regard. Each such Notice shall when possible announce the number of vacancies to be filled on the result of the examination.

9. Conduct of examinations.—Each examination under this Part shall be conducted by the Commission in the manner notified by the Government from time to time.

10. Combined examination.—If an examination held under this Part is a combined examination for the purposes of making appointments to more than one Service or post, the following provisions shall apply, namely:

(a) Any person may apply to be admitted as a candidate for appointment in all or any of the Services or posts for which he is eligible. If he wishes to be considered for appointment in more than one Service or post, he shall state in his application form the names of the Services or posts for which he wishes to be considered and the order of his preferences for them, and in such case only one position shall be necessary and one payment of the fee referred to in rule 14 shall be sufficient.

(b) Government shall assign successful candidates to each Service or post on a consideration of all circumstances including any personal preference expressed by the candidates.
10. Provided that the upper age limits mentioned above may be relaxed in respect of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes, and such other categories of persons as may, from time to time, be notified in this behalf by the Government, to the extent and subject to the conditions notified in respect of each category.

SAVE AS PROVIDED ABOVE, THE AGE LIMITS PRESCRIBED CAN IN NO CASE BE RELAXED.

13. Educational Qualifications.—(i) For recruitment to the Service a candidate must hold a degree in Engineering from a University incorporated by an Act of the Central or State Legislature in India, or any other educational institution established by an Act of Parliament, or deemed to be a University under Section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956, or a foreign University approved by Government from time to time, or possess a qualification which has been recognised by Government for the purposes of admission to the examination.

(ii) For selection as Special Class Apprentices—A candidate must have possessed the Intermediate Examination of a University or Board approved by Government, with Mathematics and at least one of the subjects Physics and Chemistry, or subjects of the examination, or possess a qualification which has been recognised by Government for the purposes of admission to the examination.

Note 1.—Candidates who are not awarded any specific division by the University or Board either in their Intermediate or any other examination mentioned above will be considered educationally eligible provided the aggregate of their marks falls within the range of marks for first or second division as prescribed by the University or Board concerned.

Note 2.—In exceptional cases the Commission may treat a candidate, who has not any of the qualifications prescribed in this rule, as educationally qualified provided he has passed examinations conducted by other institutions of which, in the opinion of the Commission, justifies his admission to the examination.

Note 4.—In the case of an examination referred to in clause (a) of rule 4 a candidate who is otherwise qualified but who has taken a degree from a foreign University which is not approved by Government may also apply to the Commission for admission which, in the opinion of the Commission, justifies his admission to the examination.
14 Fee.—A candidate must pay the fee prescribed by the Commission, unless exemped therefrom or granted concession therefore in accordance with the exemped concessions in this respect notified from time to time.

15 Decision of the Commission to be final.—The decision of the Commission as to the eligibility of or otherwise of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final, and no candidate to whom a certificate of admission has not been issued by the Commission shall be admitted to the examination.

16. Attempt to influence.—Any attempt on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by any means may be nullified by the Commission to disqualify him for admission to the examination.

17. Penalty for misconduct.—A candidate who is or has been declared by the Commission to be guilty of impersonation or of submitting fabricated documents, or documents which have been tampered with, or of making statements which are incorrect or false or of suppressing material information or of otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination hall, in the examination hall, may, in addition to rendering himself liable to criminal prosecution—

(a) be debarred permanently or for a specific period,
(b) by the Commission from admission to any examination or appearance at any interview held by the Commission, for selection of candidates; and
(c) by the Government from employment under them;
(b) be liable to disciplinary action under the appropriate rules, if he is already in service under Government.

18. Preparation of list of successful candidates.—(1) After every examination, candidates shall be arranged by the Commission in the order of merit as disclosed by the aggregate marks finally awarded to each candidate, and in that order so many candidates as are found by the Commission to be qualified by the examination shall be recommended for appointment up to the number of unreserved vacancies decided to be filled on the results of the examination.

(2) Candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes who though not qualified by the standard prescribed by the Commission for the Service, are declared by them to be suitable for appointment thereto with due regard to the maintenance of efficiency of administration, shall be recommended for appointment to vacancies reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, in the Service.

(3) If a sufficient number of candidates, who are members of the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes are not available for filling the vacancies so reserved, the vacancies not so filled shall be filled by appointing candidates, not belonging to the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes, qualified by the standard prescribed by the Commission for the Service, and an equivalent number of additional vacancies shall be reserved for candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes to be filled on the results of the next examination.

(4) If at the next examination a sufficient number of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes is not available for filling all the vacancies reserved for them, the candidates preferred under sub-rule (3) belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes qualified by the standard prescribed by the Commission for the Service, and an equivalent number of vacancies shall be carried forward to the next examination and so on.

19. Mitigation of anything contained in sub-rules (3) and (4) no vacancies reserved for the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes shall be carried forward to any year of the examination—

(a) to such an extent that the total number of vacancies so carried forward together with the vacancies reserved for candidates who are members of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes for that year exceeds 45 per cent of the total vacancies in that year, or
(b) to such vacancies, which are to be carried forward, continuously reserve for a period of two recruitment years.
10. Success in examination not confer any right to appointment—Success in the examination confers no right to appointment to the Service, unless Government are satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the Service.

20. Physical test—No candidate who after such physical examination as the Government may prescribe is not found to be in good mental or bodily health and free from any mental or physical defect likely to interfere with the discharge of the duties of the Service, shall be appointed to the Service. Candidates will have to pay to the Medical Board such fee as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time. The fact that a candidate has been physically examined will not mean or imply that he will be considered for appointment.

PART III—Recruitment by promotion

2. Recruitment by Promotion—(1) Appointments to the posts in the Junior Scale shall be made by selection on merit from amongst eligible Class II Officers (including officiating Class II Officers) of the Mechanical Engineering and Transportation (Power) Department and of the Personnel Branch with not less than 3 years’ service in the grade.

(2) Out of the 33 1/3 per cent of the vacancies in the Junior Scale to be filled by departmental promotion, 29 1/3 per cent shall be earmarked for officers of the Mechanical Engineering and Transportation (Power) Department and the remaining 4 per cent shall be earmarked for officers of the Personnel Branch. These percentages are likely to be varied from time to time in consultation with the Commission.

(3) If the quota reserved for Class II Officers for promotion to the Junior Scale is not fully utilised, the remaining vacancies shall be filled by direct recruitment under clause (a) of the rule 4 and appointment of temporary Assistant Mechanical Engineers under clause (c) of that rule in such proportion as may be decided by the Government in consultation with the Commission.

(4) Appointments to the posts in the Senior Scale shall be made by promotion in the order of seniority, subject to the rejection of the unfit, of officers ordinarily with not less than four years’ service in the Junior Scale.

(5) Appointments to the Junior Administrative Grade shall be made by selection on merit from amongst the officers ordinarily with not less than five years’ service in the Senior Scale.

(6) Appointments to the Senior Administrative Grade shall be made by selection on merit from amongst officers ordinarily with not less than five years’ service in the Junior Administrative Grade.

(7) No officer shall have any claim to promotion to any class of the Service as of right.

(8) No officer shall be eligible for promotion to the Service unless the Government is satisfied that he is suitable for appointment to the Service in all respects.

(9) Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 4, the posts in the Senior Scale, Junior Administrative Grade and Senior Administrative Grade to be filled by promotion, may, in exceptional cases, be filled by direct recruitment otherwise than through competitive examination, or by occasional recruitment from other sources, in consultation with the Commission.

PART IV—Miscellaneous

22. Disqualification—(1) No male candidate, who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the lifetime of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to the Service.

(2) No female candidate, whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to the Service.

(3) The Government may, if it is satisfied that there are special grounds so to do, exempt any candidate from the operation of this rule.
23. Power to relax.—Where the Central Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing and in consultation with the Commission, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons or posts.

24. Interpretation.—If any question arises, relating to the interpretation of these rules, it shall be referred to the Government who shall decide the same.

25. Repeal and saving.—The Indian Railways Service of Mechanical Engineers, Mechanical Artisan, Fireman, Lock, and Signalmen, Engineering and Transportation Department, of the Superior Revenue Establishment of the Indian Railways, Recruitment Rules, 1864, are hereby repealed, except as respects things done or omitted to be done thereunder.

APPENDIX I
(Vide Rule 3 (9))

Other conditions of service

1. (a) Appointments to the Service will be on probation for a period of three years during which, unless noted for want of satisfactory conduct the officer will be liable to termination by dismissal or retirement. No officer will be liable to termination by dismissal or retirement merely on account of unsatisfactory conduct during the period of probation unless the officer has been given a reasonable time to remedy the unsatisfactory conduct.

(b) On the completion of one year's service in a working post, the probationary officer will be required to undergo a final examination, both practical and theoretical; and will, as a rule, be confirmed if they are considered fit for permanent service. Failure to pass the probationary period or to pass any of the examinations or other tests which are prescribed for the probationary period will entitle the officer to the full享受 of the official allowance, and on being confirmed, will be subject to the rules and orders in force from time to time.

(c) If, for any reasons not beyond his control, a probationer wishes to withdraw from training or probation, he will be liable to refund the whole cost of his training and any other moneys paid to him during the period of his probation.

Note 1.—The period of training and the period of probation against a working post may be modified at the discretion of Government. If the period of training is extended in any case due to the training not having been completed satisfactorily, the total period of probation will be correspondingly extended.

Note 2.—Provision will also be made for the completion of the period of training at the Railway Staff College, Harrow, in two stages. The first in the Staff College is compulsory and a second chance in the event of failure, will not be given except in exceptional circumstances and provided the officer is such that such a relaxation in the Staff College is necessary. Failure to pass the Staff College tests may involve the termination of proceedings in the Staff College, and in any case, the officer will not be confirmed till they pass the tests, their period of training and/or probation being extended if necessary.

Note 3.—If in the opinion of the Government, the work or conduct of an officer on probation is unsatisfactory, or shows that he is unlikely to become efficient, Government may discharge him forthwith.

Note 4.—In the case of the period of probation Government may confirm the officer in his appointment, or, if his work or conduct has in the opinion of Government not been satisfactory, Government may either discharge him from the service or extend his period of probation for such further period as Government may think fit.

Note 5.—At the option of the Government it would not be necessary for the officer, to whom any exercise of any of the powers of Government may delegate his powers, to be made, or hold office under this paragraph.
2. (a) Probationers will not be permitted to apply for appointment elsewhere or appear for examination or selection for recruitment to other Services.

(b) In cases where probationers have already appeared at the Combined Competitive Examinations prior to their allotment to the Railway Service and qualify for appointment to Services other than Railway Services, the question of their refund in cash the cost of the training and other money paid to them during the period of their probation before they are actually relieved.

3. Probationers should have already passed or should pass during the period of probation an examination in Hindi in the Devanagari script of an approved standard. This examination may be the "PRAVEEN" Hindi Examination which is conducted by the Directorate of Education, Delhi Administration, Examination Branch or one of the equivalent Examinations recognised by the Central Government.

No probationary officer can be confirmed or his pay in the time scale raised to Rs. 450 per month unless he fulfills this requirement and failure to do so will involve liability to termination of service. No exemption can be granted.

4. Officers of the Indian Railway Service of Mechanical Engineers recruited under these regulations—

(a) will be eligible to pensionary benefits and

(b) shall subscribe to the State Railway (Non-Contributory) Provident Fund under the Rules of that Fund as applicable to railway servants appointed on the date they join service.

5. Pay will commence from the date of joining service as a probationer. Service for increments will also count from the same date. Particulars as to pay are contained in paragraph 3(2) of the main rules.

6. Officers recruited under these shall be eligible for leave in accordance with the leave rules for the time being in force applicable to officers of Indian Railways.

7. Officers will ordinarily be employed throughout their service on the railway to which they may be posted on first appointment and will have no claim as a matter of right to transfer to some other railway, but the Government reserve the right to transfer such officers, in the exigencies of service, to any railway, production, or project in or out of India. Officers will be liable to serve in the Defence Department of Indian Railways if and when called upon to do so.

If any person appointed to the Indian Railway Service of Mechanical Engineers on the results of the competitive examination held in 1964 or thereafter shall be liable to serve in any Defence Service or port connected with the Defence of India, for a period of not less than four years including the period spent on training if any:

Provided that such person—

(a) shall not be required to serve as aforesaid after the expiry of ten years from the date of his appointment;

(b) shall not ordinarily be required to serve as aforesaid after attaining the age of forty years.

Note.—In the case of persons appointed by the method referred to in clause (b) of rule 4, this paragraph will apply only if the examination referred to in that clause was held in 1965 or thereafter.

8. The relative seniority of officers recruited under clause (a) of rule 4 will be determined by the order of merit at the end of their first four years' training while in the case of those recruited under clause (b) of rule 4 the relative seniority will be determined by the order of merit in the competitive examination taken in the first four years after training started. As between officers recruited under clause (a) and those recruited under clause (b) of rule 4, seniority will be determined on the basis of training and on the same basis that of rule 4, with the seniority of each batch being maintained in the time scale subject to the limit of seniority by the Government of India however; reserve the right of fixing seniority.
at their discretion in individual cases. They also reserve the right of assigning to officers appointed under clauses (c), (d) and (e) of rule 4 positions in the seniority list at their discretion.

Note.—If the period of training and consequently the period of probation is extended in any particular case due to the training not having been completed satisfactorily, the Officer concerned is liable to lose in seniority

10. Probationary officers will start on the minimum of the junior scale and will be paid their service for increments from the date of joining. They will, however, be required to pass any departmental examination or examinations that may be prescribed before their pay can be raised from Rs. 400 to 450 p.m. in the time prescribed for the scale.

Increments from Rs. 400/- to Rs. 450/- will be stopped if they fail to pass the scale.

Advance increments from Rs. 400/- to Rs. 450/- and from Rs. 450/- to Rs. 480/- of future increments will not be affected.

Note 1.—In the case of persons already in Government service their pay on appointment as probationer will be fixed in accordance with the rules and regulations in force from time to time.

11. Increments will be given subject to the provisions of paragraph 10 for approved service only, and in accordance with the rules of the Department.

12. Promotions to the Administrative grades are dependent on the occurrence of vacancies in the sanctioned establishment and are made wholly by selection.

13. In all matters not specifically provided for herein, the probationary officers will be governed by the provisions of the Indian Railway Rules as amended from time to time and other orders issued by competent authorities from time to time.

APPENDIX II

(See Note to Rule 41.)

Particulars regarding the period and course of training and the terms and conditions of Apprenticeship of Special Class Apprentices

The terms and conditions of apprenticeship will be as set out in the form of agreement prescribed in the Indian Railway Establishment Manual, brief particulars of which are given below:

1. A candidate selected for appointment as a Special Class Apprentice shall execute an agreement binding himself and his surety jointly and severally to continue training and probation in the event of his failing to complete training and probation in the Central Government any moneys paid to him consequent on his resignation from the Central Government its agents or the Central Government.

The apprentices will be liable to undergo practical and theoretical training for 4 years in the first instance under an indenture binding them to serve on the Indian Railways on the completion of their training if their services are required. The continuance of apprenticeship from year to year will depend on satisfactory reports being received from the authorities under whom the apprentices are working.

Note.—The Government of India may at their discretion alter or modify the periods and courses of training.
2. The practical and theoretical training referred to above will be given in a railway workshop for four years of their apprenticeship. Special Class Apprentices must pass within this period either Parts I and II of the Council of Engineering Institution Examination or Sections A and B of the Associate Membership of Institution of Engineers (India) Examination. The apprentices will be trained at a stipend of Rs. 125 per month during the 1st and 2nd years and Rs. 175 per month during the 3rd and 4th years.

During the apprenticeship, the apprentices will be required to undergo training in four periods of one each, six months in the workshops followed by six months in the school and will be examined at the end of each session. If unsuccessful at any of these examinations, they will depend on their performance, be asked to sit for and pass in supplementary examinations or re-visit the next lower batch or be removed from apprenticeship.

Note—Except as provided for in paragraph 4 below, or in cases of discharge or dismissal due to insubordination, intemperance or other misconduct or breach of agreement, a week's notice of discharge from apprenticeship will be given.

3. Before the completion of the 4th year of training referred to in paragraph 2 above, the apprentices will be listed in order of merit on the results of the examination held and the reports on the apprentices received during the period of apprenticeship. Successful apprentices will be appointed as probationers for 3 years in the Indian Railway Service of Mechanical Engineers.

Note—An apprentice will be considered to have obtained the qualifying standard if he obtains a minimum of 50 per cent marks in each subject in all the examinations held during the 4 years of his training including the marks of the reports of the Principal, Indian Railways, School of Mechanical and Electrical Engineering and of the Director, Chief Mechanical Engineer, provided that in each of the 4 years he has obtained a minimum of 45 per cent marks in the aggregate and a minimum of 40 per cent marks in any one subject.

4. Unsuccessful apprentices will be discharged from their apprenticeship, one month's notice of discharge being given along with the intimation that the apprentice has been unsuccessful.

5. During the 1st and 2nd years of probation they will be sent to one or more of the Indian Railways for undergraduate training in accordance with the syllabus prescribed for the purpose as modified from time to time. The probationers may also be required to attend after working hours, a technical college or special lectures on special subjects. They will be given an oral test at the end of each phase of training during these two years of training and at the end of the 2nd year, they will be given a written test to be conducted jointly by the Chief Mechanical Engineer and the Chief, Operations, Superintendent of the Railway by which they are placed on the training received by the probationers during this period. The qualifying marks at this test will be 50 per cent.

6. During the probationary period, they will have to attend a pre-recorded course of training in the Railway Staff College, Baramula, to qualify for the tests held in the College. The test in the College is compulsory and a second chance is given in the event of failure. The tests will be given except in exceptional circumstances and provided the record of the officers is such as to justify such relaxation in the event of failure. In any case, the tests will be given unless the record of the officers is such as to justify such relaxation in the event of failure. Failure to pass the test is involved in the termination of service.

Before the end of the second year of probation, they will be required to undergo a departmental examination including General and mental examination which will include Accounting and Estimating, General and mental examination which will include Accounting and Estimating, General Rules, Factories Act, Workmen's Compensation Act, and the ability to handlesubsidiary rules, Factories Act, Workmen's Compensation Act, ability to handle

Failure to pass the examination will result in termination of service and will, in any case, involve the payment of increments. In cases where the departmental examination is not successful, they will be required to pass the departmental examination while on probation. They will be required to pass the departmental examination within the second year of the probationary period. Failure to pass the examination may result in termination of service, and will, in any case, involve the payment of increments. In cases where the probationary period has been extended for failing to pass any or all of the departmental examinations, the departmental examination will be repeated by the rules and orders in force. force from time to time. A second chance to pass any examination will, as a rule, not be given except under exceptional circumstances and only provided the other records of the candidate during the period of his training are such as to justify such relaxation being made.

5. Appointment as a probationer will commence from (a) the date of completion of four years of apprenticeship, or (b) the actual date of completion of training, whichever is later. Service for increment will, subject to paragraph 4 above, count from the date of appointment as probationer.

Note 1.—The retention in service of the probationers and the grant of annual increments are subject to satisfactory reports on their work being rendered at the end of each year of probation.

Note 2.—Service as probationer may be terminated on 3 months' notice on either side.

8. Particulars as to pay and general conditions of service prescribed in the Indian Railway of Mechanical Engineers will be found in Appendix 1 to these rules
