MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS

NOTIFICATION

New Delhi, the 16th January, 1966

G.S.R. 161.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 369 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to the Indian Railway Stores Service namely—

PART I—General

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the "Indian Railway Stores Service Recruitment Rules, 1966".

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Definitions.—In these rules unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) "Commission" means the Union Public Service Commission,

(b) "examination" means the combined competitive examination held by the Commission for recruitment to the Engineering Services under the Union;

(c) "Government" means the Central Government;

(d) "Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes" shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in clauses (24) and (25) of article 360 of the Constitution;

(e) "Service" means the Indian Railway Stores Service.

3. Constitution of Service, Classification, grades and scales of pay.—(1) The Service shall consist of—

(i) persons recruited to the Service before the commencement of these rules; and

(ii) persons recruited to the Service after such commencement in accordance with the provisions of these rules.

(2) The classification of, and the grades and scales of pay in the service shall be as follows, namely:

(i) Junior Scale: Rs. 400—400—450—500—600—650—700—750—800—850.

(ii) Senior Scale: Rs. 700 (5th year and under)—600—650—700—800—850—900—950.

(iii) Junior Administrative Grade: Rs. 1,300—1,400—1,500.

(iv) Senior Administrative Grade: Rs. 1,800—2,000.

(3) Other conditions of service shall be as specified in the Appendix to these rules.

4. Methods of recruitment.—Subject to the provisions of rule 5, recruitment to the Service shall be by the following methods, namely:

(a) by competitive examination held by the Commission in accordance with the provisions of Part II of these rules;

(b) by appointment of Assistant Controllers of Stores recruited through the Commission, initially as temporary officers, to such extent as may be decided in consultation with the Commission from time to time;

(c) by promotion in accordance with the provisions of Part III of these rules;

(d) by occasional admission of other qualified persons appointed by the President in consultation with the Commission.

Provided that 25 per cent of the number of permanent vacancies in the Service to be filled by the methods referred to in sub-clauses (a) and (b) shall be reserved for Graduates in engineering who were commissioned in the Armed Forces on a temporary basis during the period of operation of the Proclamation of Emergency issued on the 26th October, 1975.

5. Government to determine method or methods of recruitment to be employed in filling vacancies.—(1) Government shall determine the method or methods of recruitment to be employed for the purpose of filling particular vacancies, or such vacancies as may be required to be filled during any particular period.

The number of candidates to be recruited by each method:

Provided that all recruitment to the Service by the method referred to in Clause (a) of rule 4 shall be to Junior Scale only.

(2) [Correction: make clause (2)]

The percentage of vacancies to be filled by the various methods as follows:

- Method referred to in Clause (a) and (b) of rule 4—66.2/3 per cent.
- Method referred to in Clause (c) of rule 4—33.1/3 per cent.

Provided that the Government may, with the previous approval of the Commission, recruit candidates to the Service by the method referred to in Clause (d) of rule 4 and when recruitment is made under this clause the number of persons recruited shall be counted against the percentage of vacancies to be filled by the methods referred to in Clauses (a) and (b) of the said rule.

8. Special representation.—Appointments to the Service otherwise than by promotion shall be made subject to orders regarding special representation in the Service for candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes, and such other categories of persons as may from time to time be notified by the Government.

9. Nationality.—A candidate must be a citizen of India or he must belong to such categories of persons as may from time to time be notified by the Government.

Part II—Recruitment by Competitive Examinations

9. Holding of examination.—A competitive examination for appointment to the Service shall be held at such times and places as may be prescribed in a notice issued by the Commission for the purpose. Every such notice shall, as far as possible, specify the number of vacancies to be filled, as well as the results of the examination.

10. Conduct of examination.—Every examination under this Part shall be conducted by the Commission in the manner notified by the Government from time to time.

11. Combined examination.—If an examination held under this Part is combined examination for the purpose of making appointments to more than one Service or post, the following provisions shall apply, namely:

(a) Any person may apply to be admitted as a candidate for appointment in all or any of the Services or posts for which he is eligible. If he wishes to be considered for appointment in more than one Service or post, he shall state in his application form the names of the Services or posts for which he wishes to be considered, and the order of his preference for them. In such cases, only one application form shall be necessary and one payment of the fee referred to in rule 16 shall be sufficient.

(b) Government shall assign successful candidates to each Service or post in consideration of all circumstances, including any personal preference expressed by the candidates.

12. Application for admission to the examination.—A candidate shall apply for admission to the examination in such form as the Commission may prescribe.

Provided that in case of a candidate who is in the permanent or temporary service of the Government in any State Government, the application for admission to the examination shall be sent through the head of the department or office in which he is serving.

32. Age limits.—A candidate must have attained the age of 20 years and must not have attained the age of 35 years on the first day of August in the year in which the examination is held.

Provided that the upper age limit mentioned above may be relaxed in respect of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes, and such other categories of persons as may, from time to time, be notified by the Government, to the extent and subject to the conditions notified in respect of such categories.

SAVE AS PROVIDED ABOVE THE AGE LIMITS PRESCRIBED CAN IN NO CASE BE RELAXED.
13. Educational Qualifications.—A candidate must hold a degree in Engineering from a University incorporated by an Act of the Central or State Legislature in India, or any other educational institution established by an Act of Parliament, or deemed to be a University under Section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956, or a foreign University approved by Government from time to time, or possess a qualification which has been recognised by Government for the purpose of admission to the examination.

Note 1.—In exceptional cases, the Commission may treat a candidate, who has not got any of the qualifications prescribed in this rule, as educationally qualified provided that he has passed an examination conducted by other institutions, the standard of which, in the opinion of the Commission, justifies his admission to the examination.

Note 2.—A candidate who has appeared at an examination the passing of which would render him eligible to appear at this examination, but has not been informed of the result, may apply for admission to the examination. A candidate who intends to appear at such a qualifying examination may also apply, if the qualifying examination would be completed before the commencement of the examination. Such candidates will be admitted to the examination, if otherwise eligible, but the admission would be deemed to be provisional and subject to cancellation if they do not produce proof of having passed the qualifying examination as soon as possible, and in any case not later than two months after the commencement of the examination.

Note 3.—A candidate who is otherwise qualified but who has taken a degree from a foreign University which is not approved by Government may also apply to the Commission and may be admitted to the examination at the discretion of the Commission.

14. Fee.—A candidate must pay the fee prescribed by the Commission, unless exempted therefrom or granted concession thereof in accordance with the exemptions and concessions in this respect notified from time to time.

15. Decision of the Commission to be final.—The decision of the Commission as to the eligibility or otherwise of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final; and no candidate to whom a certificate of admission has not been issued by the Commission shall be admitted to the examination.

16. Attempt to influence.—Any attempt on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by any means may be held by the Commission to disqualify him for admission to the examination.

17. Penalty for misconduct.—A candidate who is or has been declared by the Commission to be guilty of impersonation or of submitting fabricated documents, or documents which have been tampered with, or of making statements which are incorrect or false or of suppressing material information or otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination hall or of misbehaviour in the examination hall, may, in addition to rendering himself liable to criminal prosecution:

(a) be debarred permanently or for a specified period—
   (i) by the Commission, from admission to any examination or appearance at any interview held by the Commission, for selection of candidates; and
   (ii) by the Government from employment under them;

(b) be liable to disciplinary action under the appropriate rules, if he is already in service under Government.

18. Preparation of list of successful candidates.—(1) After every examination candidates shall be arranged by the Commission in the order of merit as disclosed by the aggregate marks finally awarded to each candidate; and in that order as many candidates as are found by the Commission to be qualified by the examination shall be recommended for appointment under the number of unreserved vacancies decided to be filled on the results of the examination.
(2) Candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes who, though not qualified by the standard prescribed by the Commission for the service, are declared by the Board to be suitable for appointment thereto with due regard to the maintenance of efficiency of administration, shall be recommended for appointment to vacancies reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, as may be, in the Service.

(3) If a sufficient number of candidates, who are members of the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes are not available for filling all the vacancies reserved, the vacancies not so filled shall be filled by appointing candidates not belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, qualified by the standard prescribed by the Commission for the service, and an equivalent number of additional vacancies shall be reserved for candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, to be filled on the results of the next examination.

(4) If at the next examination, a sufficient number of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes are not available for filling the vacancies reserved for them, including those carried forward under sub-rule (3), the vacancies remaining unfilled shall be filled by appointing candidates not belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes, qualified by the standard prescribed by the Commission for the service, and an equivalent number of vacancies shall be carried forward to any year of the examination, and so on.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rules (3) and (4), vacancies reserved for the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes shall be carried forward to any year of the examination.

(a) to such an extent that the total number of vacancies so carried forward together with the vacancies reserved for members of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes in that year exceeds 45 per cent of the total vacancies in that year; or

(b) if such vacancies, which are to be carried forward, continuously remained unfilled for a period of two recruitment years.

19. Success in examination not to confer any right to appointment.—Success in the examination confers no right to appointment to the service, unless the Government are satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the Service.

20. Physical Test.—No candidate who, after such physical examination as the Government may prescribe, is not found to be in good mental or bodily health and free from any mental or physical defect likely to interfere with the discharge of the duties of the service, shall be appointed to the Service. Candidates will have to pay to the Medical Board such fee as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time. The fact that a candidate has been physically examined will not by itself mean or imply that he will be considered for appointment.

PART III—Recruitment by promotion

21. Recruitment by promotion.—(1) Appointments to the posts in the Junior Scale shall be made in accordance with the merit on merit of the officers in the grade of Class II office officers of the Stores Department of the Indian Railways from Headquarters- and Divisional Offices, ordinarily with not less than three years service in the grade.

(2) 33-1/3 per cent of the vacancies in the Junior Scale, shall be filled by departmental promotion. This percentage is likely to be varied from time to time in consultation with the Commission.

(3) If the quota reserved for Class II officers for promotion to Junior Scale is not fully utilised, the remaining vacancies shall be filled by direct recruitment under clause (a) of rule 4 and appointment of temporary Controlling Officers in the Stores under clause (b) of rule 4, in such proportion as may be decided by the Government in consultation with the Commission.

(4) Appointments to the posts in the Junior Scale shall be made by promotion in the order of seniority, subject to the rejection of the unfit of officers ordinarily with not less than four years service in Junior Scale.
(5) Appointments to the Junior Administrative Grade shall ordinarily be made by selection on merit from amongst officers ordinarily with not less than five years service in Senior Scale.

(6) Appointments to the Senior Administrative Grade shall be made by selection on merit from amongst officers ordinarily with not less than five years service in the Junior Administrative Grade.

(7) No officer shall have any claim to promotion to any grade of the Service.

(8) No officer shall be eligible for promotion to the Service unless the Government is satisfied that he is suitable for appointment to the Service in all respects.

(9) Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 4, the posts in the Senior Scale, Junior Administrative Grade, and Senior Administrative Grade to be filled by promotion may, in exceptional cases, be filled by direct recruitment otherwise than through competitive examination, or by occasional recruitment from other services, in consultation with the Commission.

PART IV—Miscellaneous

22. Disqualifications.—(1) No male candidate, who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to the Service.

(2) No female candidate, whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to the Service.

(3) The Government may if it is satisfied that there are special grounds so to do, exempt any candidate from the operation of this rule.

23. Power to relax.—Where the Government is of the Opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing and in consultation with the Commission, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons or posts.

24. Interpretation.—If any question arises relating to the interpretation of the rules, it shall be referred to the Government who shall decide the same.

Appendix

[Vide rule 3(3)]

Other conditions on service.

1. (a) Appointment to the Service will be on probation for a period of three years during which the service of the officers will be liable to termination by 3 months' notice in writing on either side. They will be required to undergo practical training for a period of not less than two years. Those who complete this training successfully and are considered otherwise suitable will be given charge of working posts, provided they have passed the prescribed departmental and other examinations. It must be noted that these examinations should, as a rule, be passed at the first chance and that except under exceptional circumstances a second chance will not be allowed. Failure to pass the examination may result in the termination of services and will, in any case, involve stoppage of increments.

(b) On the completion of one year's service in a working post, the probationary officers will be required to pass a final examination both practical and theoretical, and will, as a rule, be confirmed if they are considered fit for appointment in all respects. In cases where the probationary period is extended for any reason, the drawing of the first and subsequent increments on the basis of the departmental examinations, and on being confirmed will be subject to the rules and orders in force from time to time.

(c) If for any reason not beyond his control, a probationer wishes to withdraw from training or probation, he will be liable to refund the whole cost of his training and any other moneys paid to him during the period of his probation.
Note 1.—The period of training and the period of Probation against a working post may be modified at the discretion of Government. If the period of training is extended in any case due to the training not having been completed satisfactorily, the total period of probation will be correspondingly extended.

Note 2.—Probationers will also have to undergo training at the Railway Staff College, Iculam, in two phases. The test in the Staff College is compulsory and in the event of failure, will not be, given except in exceptional circumstances and provided the record of the officer is such that such of services and in any case, the officers will not be confirmed till they pass the test, their period of training and/or probation being extended, if necessary.

Note 3.—If, in the opinion of Government the work or conduct of an officer on probation is unsatisfactory, or shows that he is unlikely to become efficient, Government may discharge him forthwith.

Note 4.—On the conclusion of his period of probation Government may confirm the officer in his appointment, or, if his work or conduct has in the opinion of Government been unsatisfactory, Government may either discharge him from the service or may extend his period of probation for such further period as Government may think fit.

Note 5.—If the power to make appointment in the Service is delegated by Government to any officer, that officer may exercise any of the powers of Government under this paragraph.

2. (a) Probationers will not be permitted to apply for appointment elsewhere, or appear for examination or selection for recruitment to other services.

(b) In cases where probationers have already appeared at the Combined Competitive Examinations prior to their allotment to the Railway Service and qualified for appointment to services other than Railway Services, the question of their release from Railway Service will be considered only when they are prepared to refund to the Railway Service the cost of the training and other monies paid to them during the period of their probation before they are actually relieved.

3. Probationers should have already passed or should pass during the period of probation an examination in Hindi in the Devanagari script of an approved standard. This examination may be the "Praveen" Hindi Examination which is conducted by the Directorate of Education, Delhi Administration, Examination Branch or one of the equivalent examinations recognised by the Government.

No probationary officer can be confirmed or his pay in the time scale raised to Rs. 450 per month unless he fulfils this requirement, and failure to do so will involve liability to termination of service. No exemption can be granted.

4. Officers of the Indian Railway Stores Service recruited under these regulations—

(i) will be eligible to pensionary benefits;

(ii) shall subscribe to the State Railway (Non-Contributory) Provident Fund under the rules of that Fund as applicable to Railway servants, appointed on the date they join service.

5. Pay will commence from the date of joining service as a probationer. Service for increments will also count from the same date. Particulars as to pay are contained in sub-rule (2) of rule 3 of the main rules.

6. Officers recruited under these rules shall be eligible for leave in accordance with the leave rules for the time being in force applicable to officers of the Indian Railways.

7. Officers will ordinarily be employed throughout their service on the Railway to which they may be posted on first appointment and will have no claim as a matter of right to transfer to some other railway, but the Government reserve the right to transfer such officers, in the exigencies of service, to any other Railway, production unit or project in or out of India.

8. Any person appointed to the Indian Railway Stores Service on the results of any competitive examination held in 1964 or thereafter shall, if so required, Provided that each person...
(b) shall not ordinarily be required to serve as a cadet after the expiry of ten years from the date of his appointment as a cadet.

23. The period of training under clause (a) of this rule and the period of probability of officers under clause (b) of rule 40 shall be reduced to two years, and thereafter to such period as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time.

24. The pay of any officer who may be transferred to the Service shall be fixed in accordance with the provisions of the Rules for the time being in force.

OF THE PROVISIONS OF THE RULES FOR THE TIME BEING IN FORCE.

25. The provisions of the rules for the time being in force shall apply
