Sub.: Publication of Souvenir titled “CHETNA AAHWAN” on the occasion of Vigilance Awareness Week-2018

During the Vigilance Awareness Week, which is normally observed in the first week of November, the Vigilance Directorate of Railway Board brings out a souvenir titled “Chetna Aahwan” to commemorate the occasion and also to bring about awareness amongst the Railwaymen on vigilance related issues. Normally, the issue is released by the chairman, Railway Board.

The Railwaymen at large contributes towards the publication of this journal by way of writing articles viz. case studies, Dos and DON Ts, short stories, poems, cartoons or anecdotes. The theme, however, pertains to Vigilance/Ethics/Corruption/Transparency in administration and probity in public life.

It is therefore, requested that wide circulation is given to this letter and at least 2 to 3 articles be sent by your Railway/Unit so as to reach this office latest by 23.08.2018 along with the CD/Pen-drive containing the articles/material for publication. The articles can also be sent through email at the following email address:

dvm@rb.railnet.gov.in and railwayboardvigilance1@gmail.com

The articles sent may also be edited by the SDGMs/CVOs so as to make them cogent, readable and error free. For Hindi articles, font used may be either Kruti Dev 010 or UNICODE.

Copy to:-

All officers & branches of Vigilance Directorate- for contributing articles latest by 23.08.2018