

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
MINISTRY OF RAILWAYS
RAILWAY BOARD

2001/Chg.II/13/Stoppage Policy

New Delhi, Dt. 12.09.2003

15.9.03

General Managers (Optg.)
Indian Railways

Sub: Delegation of powers to General Managers relating to operation of trains.

Ref: Board's letter of even number dated 26/31.12.2001.

In partial modification of Board's above referred letter on the above mentioned subject it is stated that the Para No. 2 of the letter be read as under: -

General Managers be delegated powers for optimum utilisation of lie-over rakes of passenger trains which are confined to their Railways only. The utilisation of lie-over of rakes of express trains can be done by the General Managers with prior consultation with Coaching Directorate, Railway Board. These powers would be exercised by the General Managers for the sections where line capacity utilisation with maintenance blocks is less than 90%.

The receipt of this letter may please be acknowledged.

(Deepak Nath)
Director TT(Coaching)-II
Railway Board.
