D.O. No.E(LL)75/HER(RLT)/22

New Delhi, dated 1.12.1975.

My dear

Sub : Implementation of the recommendations of the Railway Labour Tribunal, 1969.

In course of discussion in the CPOs' meeting with the Board (M.S.) held in Board's office on 28th November 1975, the issue regarding provision of gazetted officers' strength to oversee the work in regard to implementation of Miabhoys' award in respect of the Hours of Employment Regulations was raised. It was agreed that one of the two Deputies who are sanctioned for each Railway in connection with the 10-hour rule might be placed under the control of the Chief Personnel officer and be made responsible for implementation of the recommendations of the Railway Labour Tribunal, 1969, in respect of the Hours of Employment Regulations. In the Divisions, as already indicated, the work will be placed under the organisation sanctioned for the Pay Commission work. This is further to my D.O. No.E(LL)75/HER(RLT)/22 dated 22.11.75.

Yours sincerely,

T.V. Madhav
