The Shram Ratna would be common for both the Public and Private Sectors and the remaining 32 awards would be shared equally by both the sectors, i.e. 16 each for Public and Private Sectors.

2. The awards are generally announced on the eve of the Independence Day/Republic Day every year and are presented to the winners at a function held subsequently. A copy of the Prime Minister's Shram Awards Scheme is sent herewith to all the concerned Ministries/Departments with the request that the same may kindly be circulated among the Departmental and Public Sector Undertakings under their administrative control for sponsoring the names of deserving workers.

3. In view of the high prestige attached to the awards, it is necessary that the selection of the workers for the awards be made with utmost care. At the same time, it may also be ensured that workers who have made significant contribution in the above-mentioned areas are not overlooked.

Ministry of Railways (Railway Board)

SEP 2021
4. All the Ministries/Departments are, therefore, requested to make an assessment of the performance of workers employed by Departmental Undertakings and the Public Sector Undertakings under their administrative control on the basis of the Scheme and the guidelines appended hereto and make available their recommendations to this Ministry latest by 30.11.2021.

5. Full particulars (Three copies) in respect of each worker who is recommended for the award in question may be sent to this Ministry in the enclosed Annexures, along with two copies of a recent passport size photograph of the worker.

6. The Citation should contain a brief biographical sketch and, in addition, give adequate description of the principal activities, achievements, significant contributions made in the field of productivity, proven innovative abilities, presence of mind and exceptional courage which justify the award.

7. The Citation (Annexure II) is intended to be published, if the worker is chosen for the award and, as such, great care should be taken while drafting it so as to ensure that it is factually and grammatically correct. The citation should be precise and concise and in no case should be of more than 600 words. If for the purpose of recommending the case, any further details are considered necessary, these should be furnished in a separate annexure. The citation should be neatly typed in 1½ space on a sheet of paper (on one side only).

8. It may be noted that the instructions for preparation of the citation are required to be adhered strictly and in case the citation does not conform to specifications mentioned above, the citation/nomination may be liable to be returned/ rejected summarily.

9. In addition to the hard copy, application along with the citation part in editable soft copy must also be sent through mail at ish1-mcie@nic.in by 30.11.2021.

10. Nominations of a worker received directly from the employer will not be entertained.

11. It may be noted that the category of the award for which the worker is recommended is not to be mentioned. The Technical Committee constituted for this purpose will recommend the category of the award after due scrutiny of the application.

12. In making the recommendations, it may kindly be ensured that the workers proposed for the awards are worthy of the distinction, enjoy good reputation in their fields and have not come in for any adverse notice or criticism for any lapse in their professional or social work. In Point No. IV of the application form (Annexure-I) details of the applicant(s) having received any of the Prime Minister’s Shram Awards in the past specifying the ‘Year’ and ‘Category’ may also be mentioned.

13. While making recommendations, it may also kindly be ensured that adequate representation is given to women workers and physically challenged workers as far as possible.
14. Where the citation has been prepared in a language other than English, an English translation of the same should accompany the application. The soft copy should be provided only in English.

15. For sending applications, the instructions contained in guidelines appended herewith should be followed.

16. The recommendations complete in all respects may be forwarded so as to reach this Ministry as early as possible and in any case latest by 30.11.2021. As the recommendations will be taken up for consideration soon thereafter, it is necessary that the deadline be strictly adhered to. Any recommendation received after the last date as stipulated above will not be considered and shall be rejected. Therefore, all Ministries/Departments are requested to ensure that all recommendations must reach this Ministry by 30.11.2021.

17. The administrative Ministries/Departments should invariably quote Phone & email ID of the officer(s) forwarding the recommendations in all correspondence. The Ministry/Department should also ensure that similar details of applicants and their organizations are also submitted to facilitate speedy communication.
