RBB No. 201/99

New Delhi, dated 19.08.99

The General Manager
All Indian Railways &
Production Units.

No. PC-V/98/17/41

S.No. PC-V/208

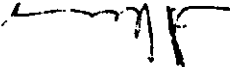

Sub: Hourly rates of Incentive Bonus.

Ref: This office letter of even No. dated 21.6.99.

Railways and Production Units have been directed to implement the increased hourly rate of incentive payment and also the modified allowed timings (AT) with effect from 1.9.99.

It has been represented that the 'incentive period' on many Railways and Production Units does not match with the calendar month. As a result, the implementation of directives from 1.9.99 will result in duplication of incentive calculation work i.e. the calculation for incentive payment will have to be made at two different hourly rates with the time saving computed as per old and new Allowed Timings (AT). Hence, the cut-off date for implementation needs a review in such cases.

The matter has been examined in detail. Now, it has been decided that increased hourly rates should be implemented from the beginning of incentive period in vogue in Railway workshops/Production Units covered under Chittaranjan type of incentive scheme i.e. the increased hourly rate of incentive payment should be effective from the date matching the wage period pertaining to salary payment of September '99 paid in October '99. However, while doing so, Railways and Production Units must ensure that the payments with the new rates are made only when the job cards have been modified to the revised Allowed Timings i.e. 12% reduction in Allowed Timings.
