Sub: Local Purchase of materials.

In a Vigilance case relating to local purchase of materials examined in consultation with the Central Vigilance Commission, some irregularities were observed. Irregularities in local purchase have also been observed in some more cases also. CVC in the subject case have, therefore, advised that the system of local purchase may be strengthened and improved by making use of MMIS and by training and updating the executives to prevent the recurrence of such instances.

Since now almost all the units of Stores Department in Railways have implemented MMIS, this can be used to strengthen and improve the system of Local Purchase.

Therefore, you are advised to strengthen and improve the system of local purchase by implementing MMIS in this area and also by training and updating the executives to prevent the irregularities.
